PORTHMADOG

Have a bite to eat and a drink in the Russell Tearoom then browse our brilliant souvenir, book and model shop. Purchase your ticket and welcome aboard; your Guard is your host for the journey and is on-hand to answer any questions.

THE JOURNEY

Our narrow gauge trains of vintage wooden carriages take a short run through a wooded glade, under a bridge and out into the countryside.

MINIATURE RAILWAY

'Children' of all ages can enjoy a ride on our Miniature Railway (subject to availability) at Gelert's Farm

GELERT'S FARM

All trains stop here on the way back and you are invited to visit our interactive hands-on museum. You can climb on to the footplate of a real steam locomotive, explore the interactive exhibits and ride the runaway train!

VOLUNTEERING

Have you ever considered becoming a volunteer on our Heritage Railway?

Whether you're local or from afar, we are always looking for volunteers. All you need is enthusiasm!

We have many areas seeking volunteers, from running our trains during the operating season to winter maintenance such as painting carriages, maintaining trackwork, spring cleaning and refreshing the museum to name a few.

AT PEN-Y-MOUNT
